

QUALITY MANAGEMENT SYSTEM POLICY

In the field we operate; to meet the needs and expectations of our customers in the fastest and best way with the team spirit of our qualified human resources by following the modern technological developments and constantly updated trainings, and to present the products of the desired quality and quality; In this direction, by complying with legal regulations and quality management system requirements, to continuously improve the efficiency of quality management system Quality Management System (ISO 9001: 2015), to ensure the implementation of the standard. To keep customer satisfaction at the highest level.

To apply the information, occupational health and safety of the organization at the highest level by preserving the confidentiality, integrity and accessibility values of the information belonging to the stakeholders, employees and the company by acting with the principle of tür Integrity tür of all employees; This issue, which is directly related to human health, is a matter that all our employees should pay attention to.

To ensure full safe environment in the company, to implement the continuous implementation of our targets and plans to ensure the continuity of standards. To prevent problems before they occur by keeping every stage of our processes under control. With our product and service quality, it is our general policy to be a sought and preferred company.

GENERAL MANAGER
03/01/2019